

A photograph of a grand, ornate restaurant interior. The room features high ceilings with intricate moldings and a large, multi-tiered crystal chandelier hanging from the center. The walls are decorated with large, arched windows draped with heavy red curtains. The floor is covered in a dark, patterned carpet. Several round tables are set with white tablecloths, glassware, and silverware, surrounded by red upholstered chairs. Potted plants are placed throughout the room, adding a touch of greenery. The overall atmosphere is one of classic elegance and luxury.
